Civic Engagement for Immigrant Women

Civic Engagement for Immigrant Women

Civic Engagement for Immigrant Women project will equip women with tools and strategies to enhance their knowledge of the Canadian Government systems and procedures.

The project will teach you how to get involved in the decision making processes, locally and nationally. It will also inform you how to contact your local government representatives.

You will learn about:

- How the Canadian Government works
- How the voting system in Canada operates and how to make your decision
- How to get involved locally and nationally
- How to help others learn after you have taken the course

The project will provide information packages in your language.

Childcare

Childcare will be provided free of charge to program participants with children aged 6 months to 6 years, in our on-site childcare facility
