- a) Receive notice of the Annual General Meetings of the Society;
- b) Attend any Annual General Meetings of the Society;
- c) Speak at any Annual General Meetings of the Society; and
- d) Exercise other rights and privileges given to Members in these bylaws.

4.4.2 Voting Members

Only Members who are:

- a) Members in good standing and are at least eighteen (18) years old; and
- b) currently listed within the Register of Members shall be entitled to vote at a General Meeting.

4.4.3 Number of Votes

A Voting Member is entitled to one (1) vote at a meeting of the Society.

4.4.4 Member in Good Standing

A Member is in good standing when:

- a) the Member is listed within the Register of Members; and
- b) the Member is not suspended as a Member as provided for under Article 4.5.

4.5 Suspension of Membership

4.5.1 Decision to Suspend

The Board, at a Special Meeting called for that purpose, may suspend a Member's membership not more than three (3) months, for one or more of the following reasons:

- a) if the Member has failed to abide by the Bylaws;
- b) if the Member has been disloyal to the Society;
- c) if the Member has disrupted meetings or functions of the Society;
- d) if the Member has done or failed to do anything judged to be harmful to the Society;
- or
- e) If the Member is deemed inactive for a period of time longer than one year.

4.5.2 Notice to the Member

4.5.2.1 The affected Member will receive written notice of the Board's intention to deal with whether that Member should be suspended or not. The Member will receive at least two (2) weeks notice before the Special Meeting.

4.5.2.2 The Notice will be sent by single registered mail to the last known address of the Member shown in the records of the Society. The notice may also be delivered by an Officer of the Board.

4.5.2.3 The notice will state the reasons why suspension is being considered.

4.5.3 Decision of the Board

4.5.3.1 The Member will have the opportunity to appear before the Board to address the matter. The Board may allow another person to accompany the Member.

4.5.3.2 The Board will determine how the matter will be dealt with, and may limit the time given the Member to address the Board.

4.5.3.3 The Board may exclude the Member from its discussion of the matter, including the deciding vote.

4.5.3.4 The decision of the Board is final.

4.6 Termination of Membership

4.6.1 Resignation

4.6.1.1 Any Member may resign from the Society by sending or delivering a written notice to the Chair of the Society.

4.6.1.2 Once the notice is received, the Member's name is removed from the Register of Members. The Member is considered to have ceased being a Member on the date their name is removed from the Register of Members.

4.6.2 Death

The membership of a Member is ended upon their death.

4.6.3 Expulsion

4.6.3.1 The Society may, by Special Resolution at a Special General Meeting called for such purpose, expel any Member for any cause which is deemed sufficient in the interests of the Society.

4.6.3.2 On the passage of the Special Resolution called for such purpose, such decision shall be deemed to be final and the name of the Member shall be removed from the Register of Members. The Member shall be considered to have ceased being a Member on the date their name is removed from the Register of Members.

4.7 Transfer of Membership

No right or privilege of any Member is transferable to another person. All rights and privileges cease when the Member resigns, dies, or is expelled from the Society.

4.8 Continued Liability for Debts Due

Although a Member ceases to be a Member, by death, resignation or otherwise, they are liable for any debts owing to the Society at the date of ceasing to be Member.

4.9 Limitation on the Liability of Members

No Member is, in their individual capacity, liable for any debt or liability of the Society.
