

Prabhjot Deol

Prabhjot Deol is from India, and has called Calgary home for two and a half years. She received her Bachelor of Arts in Computer Application. In India she was a tutor for elementary school children. She hopes that one day she will get a job in the computer industry or teaching children. She enjoys learning new things, reading and cooking.

Prabhjot has volunteered at CIWA for six months with the Breast Health Initiative for Newcomers Program. She helps with administrative tasks such as; making phone calls, filing and data entry. She assists with weekend workshops, mammography clinics and mentors volunteers. Prabhjot also volunteers for the Seniors Arts and Crafts Group in the NE Library and she supports special events whenever possible.

In her words she enjoys volunteering at CIWA because it is 'so good to help other women'. She says that volunteering is a good way to spend her time and she has made friends. She has also improved some of her computer skills and has noticed an improvement in her English.

Prabhjot was nominated for Volunteer of the Month as she has an excellent way of inspiring new volunteers. She is committed and a fast learner. She is always willing to come help with last minute duties. She is keen to learn new information and is punctual. CIWA staff say, 'They can count on her!'.

Congratulations Prabhjot for being Volunteer of the Month for June!
