

Wei Wei Teng

Wei Wei Teng was born and raised in Malaysia, where she studied Business Banking and Finance. She also lived and worked in the United Kingdom for a few months. In October of 2014, she and a friend landed in Vancouver and then drove to Calgary.

She was immediately connected to CIWA where she jumped at the opportunity to volunteer. Her first taste of volunteerism at CIWA was at a HIPPY event. Since then, she has helped the Volunteer Program with orientations, makes follow-up survey phone calls, assists with various office administrative tasks and trains new volunteers. Wei Wei is a volunteer with both second and third floor reception desks, has helped lead summer camp with Youth Mentorship and helps with various workshops. She is also a co-facilitator with New Friends and Neighbourhood Groups.

Wei Wei is an enthusiastic volunteer who fully embraces every opportunity she can. She enjoys her time at CIWA because this organization is all about women and empowerment. Volunteering has provided her with various ways to grow and develop many skills. One of the reasons she likes volunteering with reception is because she believes that making a positive first impression is important. She feels that the happier clients are the more they will come back to us. She is thankful for the opportunity to get Canadian experience in the workplace and has found a 'home' at CIWA.

Wei Wei is being honored because of her strong work ethic and dedication to CIWA. She treats all her volunteer roles with the utmost professionalism and esteem. She is available and eager to help out with various positions and isn't afraid to try new tasks where she can learn and grow. Many staff and clients appreciate her integrity and ability to remember names and she always goes over and above the call of duty.

We are honoured to recognize Wei Wei as Volunteer of the Month for August. Congratulations Wei Wei!
